THE WIND'S WORK.

The Terrible Track of the Toledo Tornado.

WIDESPREAD DESTRUCTION.

Trees, Buildings and Chimneys Blown Down and Houses Unroofed - General News Notes.

The Toledo Tornado.
TOLEDO, September 7. - The tornado which visited this section originated in Southern Michigan. It first struck Sylvania, a village ten miles north of Toledo. All the tall trees were leveled; the lowest ones were spared. One farmer had fifty acres of fine timber all blown down. The brick schoolhouse at Inischie was destroyed. The damage near Toledo has already been given. The track of the tornado was south by east from here along the Toledo & Ohio Central Railroad, the track of the storm can be followed as far as the eye can reach. It is from 100 to 200 yards wide. No fences, nor tall trees are standing in this track. Corn is scattered, and houses and barns are unroofed for miles. At Waterville and other villages to the southward, there is much injury done. The total damage will foot up many thousands of dollars. No loss of life is reported, but many narrow escapes are narrated. A rumor that the new Insane Asylum here was destroyed is false. The roofs of a number of buildings connected with it were damaged and chimneys were blown down, causing damage to the asylum to the extent of about $8,000 only. A Wabash train met the centre of the tornado and the smoke stack of the locomotive was carried off.

Discontented Switchmen.
CHICAGO, September 7. - A meeting of switchmen was held this morning, in Packingtown. Union men were present from twenty-four roads. A committee was appointed to wait upon the officers of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road, this afternoon, and demand that the two crews discharged on Monday be reinstated; also to demand of the Lake Shore that they employ no more non-union men at the stock yards. Several union switchmen have been employed there since the strike and the action of the men to-day virtually resurrects the old trouble. It was unanimously resolved that if both the requests were not granted a strike would be declared this evening. If this is done, every road in the city will be involved.

The Times and Gladstone.
LONDON, September 7. - Commenting on the invitation received by Gladstone, from the executive committee, to attend the centennial celebration of the adoption of the American Constitution, the Times says: Englishmen will not fail to gratefully recognize the kindly feeling that prompted the invitation. We are sorry, as Gladstone was chosen, that he is unable to accept, but we find it difficult to discover how the conclusion was arrived at that Gladstone was peculiarly fitted to represent England on such an occasion. We should hardly select Blaine to represent the United States if an English celebration were in question.

Why Porter Resigns.
WASHINGTON, September 7. - In reference to the published report that he intends to resign, on account of the strained relations between Secretary Bayard and himself, Assistant-Secretary of State Porter said, to-day, that there had been no disagreement of any kind, but that he had contemplated resigning for some time, on account of the ill-health of his wife. While he has had the matter under consideration for several weeks, he has not yet, he said, come to any determination.

Fire Record.
BOSTON, September 7. - The Maverick Oil Works, at East Boston, was burned this morning. Five men lost their lives in the fire.
PATRICK, N. J., September 7. - Fire started this morning in Joseph Jackson's silk mill, part of the Grant Locomotive Works building, and soon communicated to every part of the Grant Works, nothing remaining but the erecting shop, foundry and part of the new machine shop. The loss is estimated at $150,000, and 600 hands are thrown out of employment.

Prospective Big Suit.
MILWAUKEE, September 7. - Papers were placed in the hands of the sheriff to-day, in a suit for a large amount begun by the Third National Bank of New York, against John E. Burton, the goggle iron king. The exact amount involved is not known as the papers could not be served. Burton is in New York City.

Railroad Building.
LAREDO, Texas, September 7. - Eight car loads of a grading outfit will leave here to-day for Saltillo, to begin work on the gap between Saltillo and San Luis Potosi, on the Mexican National Railway, which will, without doubt, be completed to the City of Mexico within twelve months.

A Knotty Question.
LONDON, September 7. - The Times, this morning, asks whether it is too much to expect that the American Senate should, in some way, signify beforehand, its willingness to be bound by the decisions of the fisheries commission.

Scrupulous Examination.
HAVANA, September 7. - The Governor-General's deputy is now inspecting the Cienfuegos custom house, under orders to make a scrupulous examination of the affairs of that office.

Syrup of Figs.
Is Nature's own true laxative. It is the most easily taken, and the most effective remedy known to cleanse the system when bilious or constive; to dispel Headaches, Colds and Fevers; to Cure Habitual Constipation, Indigestion, Bile, etc. Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Company, San Francisco, Cal. For sale in 50-cent and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. A. G. Smith & Co., Agents, Salt Lake.

Big Trotting Event.
CHICAGO, September 7. - Jay Eye See and Patron are matched to trot at Washington Park for $5,000 a side. This race will take place either September 27th or October 2d. It will be the grandest trotting event of the year. Jay Eye See's record is 2:10, that of Patron 2:14. The latter has a better record for 5-year-old stallions by almost four seconds.

The R. R. Mail Service.
DETROIT, September 7. - The Railway Mail Service representatives concluded their business sessions to-day. Officers were elected as follows: President, W. B. McKee, Rahway, N. J.; Secretary and Treasurer, S. K. Bingham, Cramp Point, Ill.; and a vice-president from each division. New Orleans was designated as the next place of meeting.

The Massachusetts Prohibitionists.
WORCESTER, Mass., September 7. - The delegates to the State Convention of the prohibition party continue to arrive in large numbers, and 1,000 delegates will probably take part in the deliberations. Some debate is looked for on some of the platform planks, notably the one relating to woman suffrage.

An Appointment.
LONDON, September 7. - Arthur Charles, Q. C., has been appointed justice of the Court of Common Pleas, to succeed Sir William Robert Grove, resigned.
